

Pink Attitude & Core Allies, LLC Present

Harnessing the Unconscious Leadership Development Program

Pink Attitude is committed to empower the changing face of Canada's workforce by supporting women of South Asian origin in achieving their full potential in their chosen endeavors. After reviewing many paths, they decided to fund an inaugural leadership development course with Core Allies, LLC which will focus on helping 12 participants unlock their full potential to make a lasting change. The course will be a six-month leadership program with a mix of deep individual coaching, peer coaching, and group coaching sessions. For this first pilot program Pink Attitude will sponsor the cost for all 12 participants.
